

SIT AND STITCH WITH BEV TULLY

Bev is a very experienced teacher who loves what she does and is always looking for different techniques to try. Her knowledge of Ribbon work, thread painting, Jacobean work is extensive. She loves developing new techniques with her work.

These Saturday workshops are held once a month to allow you to work on any project you choose. You may bring your UFO's or commence a new project with Bev's assistance. There are no set projects. Share this wonderful day with like minded people and you will be surprised at how much you will get done. Lunch breaks the stitching day then back to work again. The atmosphere is relaxed and all are welcome. No experience is necessary.
